Section A: The 2009 Political Declaration and Plan of Action

In the 2009 Political Declaration, member states established 2019 as a target date to “eliminate or reduce significantly and measurably” several elements of the world drug problem. These questions ask respondents to consider the progress made towards achieving these goals, whether this is an area where their NGOs have done substantial work, and whether these goals should be extended for the next decade.

GOAL 1: “By 2019, eliminate or reduce significantly and measurably the illicit cultivation of opium poppy, coca bush and cannabis plant.”

In your opinion,

- There has been significant progress made towards achieving this goal
- There has been some progress made towards achieving this goal
- The progress towards this goal has been neutral
- There has been some regression while trying to achieve this goal
- There has been significant regression while trying to achieve this goal

- You cannot answer this question

1a. Does your NGO work to eliminate or reduce the illicit cultivation of opium poppy, coca bush and/or cannabis plant?

- Yes (if yes, then will go to question 1b)
- No (if no, then will skip straight to 1c)

1b. Please describe any efforts or achievements your NGO has made in the past decade towards the goal “to eliminate or reduce significantly and measurably the illicit cultivation of opium poppy, coca bush and cannabis plant.” [max 200 words].

Section C: Sustainable Development Goals

In 2015, the United Nations adopted 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDG) for the next fifteen years. Although substance use is only explicitly mentioned in Goal 3 (health and well-being), drug policies overlap with many other Goals. We are interested to learn about how you might see your NGOs work on drugs and drug policy in relation to any of these SDGs.
